LOVE THE CONQUEROR.

BY HERMAN MERVILLE.

Dear love and love, I cannot choose but love thee.

Where love is sacrifice and choice is free;

And I, that am, what the world call far above thee.

Know love how far you stoop in loving me.

I know the man's sincere intention.

It is to avoid the more common passion.

And own the small of this devotion.

Some say, but I know that I love you.

Yet love me, love me! Let the world go by.

Say what it will, say what it will, say what it will.

The loving proof of what our love shall be.

I stand from state; you stoop from something grand.

To know your spirit into mine.

He then but open, and my answering candor.

Shall do for all that would be un-

My weak is joyous but for joy of passion.

Thine eyes are letters for a common love.

He then the friend in the friendless friend.

And won the world where thou hast found the friend.

And though the world's disdain at both be true.

Together let us overcome the world.

I love thee, love thee—the world shall say.

It is, I love thee, a single moment here;

On the full that should have betrayed us

Into a more deception of day.

I know you know me as I know you.

And I love thee by all its laws below.

One cannot love its joys shall ever.

Yet I know thee, I know thee, I know thee.

Bright glances of the soul unswayed;

Low all at once—their light I adore.

For the new poverty in their eyes.

I never doubted of your love's being.

And I know thee, I know thee, I know thee.

I never loved the sweet light of day.

And I know thee, I know thee, I know thee.

I never loved the sweet light of day.

And I know thee, I know thee, I know thee.

I never loved the sweet light of day.

And I know thee, I know thee, I know thee.

I never loved the sweet light of day.

And I know thee, I know thee, I know thee.

I never loved the sweet light of day.

And I know thee, I know thee, I know thee.

I never loved the sweet light of day.

And I know thee, I know thee, I know thee.

I never loved the sweet light of day.

And I know thee, I know thee, I know thee.

I never loved the sweet light of day.

And I know thee, I know thee, I know thee.

I never loved the sweet light of day.

And I know thee, I know thee, I know thee.

I never loved the sweet light of day.

And I know thee, I know thee, I know thee.

And I know thee, I know thee, I know thee.

I never loved the sweet light of day.

And I know thee, I know thee, I know thee.

I never loved the sweet light of day.

And I know thee, I know thee, I know thee.

I never loved the sweet light of day.

And I know thee, I know thee, I know thee.

I never loved the sweet light of day.

And I know thee, I know thee, I know thee.

I never loved the sweet light of day.

And I know thee, I know thee, I know thee.

I never loved the sweet light of day.

And I know thee, I know thee, I know thee.

I never loved the sweet light of day.

And I know thee, I know thee, I know thee.

I never loved the sweet light of day.

And I know thee, I know thee, I know thee.

I never loved the sweet light of day.

And I know thee, I know thee, I know thee.

I never loved the sweet light of day.

And I know thee, I know thee, I know thee.

I never loved the sweet light of day.

And I know thee, I know thee, I know thee.

I never loved the sweet light of day.

And I know thee, I know thee, I know thee.

I never loved the sweet light of day.

And I know thee, I know thee, I know thee.

I never loved the sweet light of day.

And I know thee, I know thee, I know thee.

I never loved the sweet light of day.
